

Australian Cycling Conference 2017

Free guided bicycle tour: Adelaide to the Glenelg beach front, and then returning by the Torrens Linear Park

DATE	Pre-Conference Sunday 16 July 2017
EFFORT	Leisurely and low stress. Your ride leader is a casual, every day commuter bike rider, not a competition bike rider!
START TIME	1.30pm. This ride should take no longer than 3.5 hours.
COST	Free ride. This is not an Australian Cycling Conference included event.
START PLACE	Tarndanyangga/Victoria Square, under the enormous Australian flag.
COMPLETION	Adelaide CBD – Bernhard is happy to return people to Tarndanyangga/Victoria Square or elsewhere as may be necessary.
MAXIMUM	10 riders.
LEADER	Bernhard Sayer is an Adelaide commuter bike rider who wishes he had more time to ride around Adelaide than he does! (He has, however, conquered the Mawson Trail at his own speed!)
NOTES	The ride will head across the western parklands belt until we turn onto the Westside Bikeway towards Glenelg. We can stop for a coffee at Glenelg before riding up the coast to the River Torrens mouth at Henley Beach South, when we'll turn right and head back into the city along the Torrens River Linear Park . All up, around 30km.
INSURANCE etc.	None. Just take good care of yourself! This is not a conference ride. Bernhard is inviting friends to ride with him.
WHAT TO BRING	Bicycle and a water bottle. It probably wouldn't be a bad idea to bring a reflector vest and/or light in case darkness falls a little earlier than we expect!
WANT TO COME?	First 10 only phone Bernhard 0409 689 013 or email bernhard.sayer@bigpond.com before midday on Saturday 15 July 2017.
PREVIEW	None really available. However, www.cycleinstead.com.au will give you an idea of where we are heading if you plot the right markers.
