

	Francesca Maclean: The Economic Case for Walking	Daniel Osborne: What can Australia learn from Cycling in Japan? Ashley Carruthers: The Road is for Play: Lessons for Cyclists from Vietnam
3:00	Afternoon Tea
3:30	Round Tables: All round tables will be presented concurrently a total of three times. Conference attendees will have the opportunity to change tables/rooms between rounds to attend three different presentations.
	Room 1	Room 2
	Justin McCulloch: Creating Cycling Places - How Infrastructure Influences Recreational Travel Share and Expenditure in Suburban Adelaide Jerryn Zwart & Kylie Nixon: Improving active transport planning for new developments Rory Rathborne: Melbourne Metro Bicycle Parking Demand Lee-Anne Fleming: Learning to Ride a Bike Right	Alexa McAuley: Grass Roots to Green Grid - Sydney's Cooks River to Iron Cove Greenway Joey Fagan: The benefits and challenges of community cycling projects - Investing in partnership to embed cycling in culture Julian Monfries: Friends of the Heysen Trail - The story of a successful walking organisation John McAuthur: Tramping (Hiking) in a rapidly changing New Zealand and World Climate
5:00	End of Day one
5:15	Optional conference drinks, location TBC
6:30	Optional Conference Dinner Location TBC $55 per person (drinks not included)

Day Two – Friday, 25th of October
7:30	MORNING WALKING TOUR - TBC
8:30	Registration and Coffee
9:00	DAY TWO WELCOME Address by City of Adelaide – Gold Sponsor
9:15	Keynote Speaker – Associate Professor Paul Tranter Slowing City Transportation: Creating healthier places to live, work and play.
10:00	SPINCYCLES Garry Robinson: How I made a google map of all Sydney's Cyclepaths Ali Soltani: Urban Network Morphology of Major Trip Generators and its Impact on Walking and Cycling

	Sue McMillan: Safer Schools Precincts - The Power of Partnerships in Creating Change Ian Radbone: Getting More Green man Time Reb Rowe: Peddling community bike collectives as resilience builders for an uncertain future John Merory: A tale of commuting in two cities - A personal perspective Jerryn Zwart: Safe mixed traffic environments - Cycle Streets and Advisory Bicycle lanes design guidelines
10:30	Morning Tea
11:00	LEARNSHOP: HEALTH – STRATEGY AND DESIGN (ROOM 1)	LEARNSHOP: IMPROVING TRAVEL OPTIONS (ROOM 2)
	Greg Carmody: Disability Discrimination Act (DDA) Compliant road and path infrastructure Sam Reich: The CycleSafe Network - A Community-Based Initiative for Active Transport Investment Tuesday Udell: Why South Australia needs a state-wide Walking Strategy	Robert Kretschmer: Walk, Cycle Greater Bendigo - Comfort, Convenience, Connections and Culture Luke Christensen: A New Approach for the prioritisation of a Bike and ride in Canberra Tess Lea & Nicholas Fogarty: City Cycling - Policy cultures, traffic congestion and community solutions
12:30	Lunch
1:15	LEARNSHOP: SAFETY (ROOM 1)	LEARNSHOP: A CULTURE OF WALKING AND CYCLING (ROOM 2)
	Jennifer Bonham: Tools for a new mobility culture - Teaching learner drivers how to interact more safely with cyclists Sundance Bilson-Thompson: Enforcement of helmet laws and cycling participation Andrew van den Berg: A future of zero injuries and deaths of pedestrians and cyclists	James Laing: The Barriers We Ignore Roxane MacInnis: If We Build It, They May Come... Christina Sorbello: Getting more people to cycle - the next 4%
2:45	Afternoon Tea
3:00	LEARNSHOP: ROOM 1	LEARNSHOP: ROOM 2
	Hugo Nicholls: Nuances of Negotiations: How do bike riders and drivers interact at intersections? Penelope Bennett: Improving cycling and walking infrastructure design as part of integrated place outcomes on the Level Crossing Removal Project.	Fay Patterson: First-principles infrastructure design for the new Frome Bikeway Roger Vreugdenhil: Surface Matters: Foregrounding Surfaces in Active Urban Travel
4:00	PANEL DISCUSSION: TBC Address by Bike SA – Gold Sponsor Panellists: TBC
4:50	Announcement of the 2020 Australian Walking and Cycling Conference
5:00	End of Conference

